Democratic State Convention

Will be held in Columbus, July 9th and 10th.

Hocking county is entitled to six delegates.

Task Republican Central Committee had a meeting last Saturday, the ultimate object being to endorse the Bosses in the purpose to defeat Chuck Armstrong for Sheriff at the primaries.

Will the candidates for Senator in opposition to Judge Bright define their position on Local option? Senator Bright voted for the measure, and stands by the record. Where do the other candidates stand?

Mrs. McKINLEY who was seriously sick while on the trip to the Pacific, has improved, and it is hoped will soon be restored to her usual health again. The Presidential party is on the way home, and will reach Washington today.

Bosses Sands and White went to Athens last Sunday, for the purpose no doubt of providing church facilities for the Hocking Delegation attending the Senatorial Convention on the 4th, when the time comes for prayer.

Gov. NASH and party have returned from the Pacific trip. We regret the Governor is in bad health and hope he may soon be well and strong, and able to stand the fight in store for him when the campaign opens, and he leads the forces of his party on the road of defeat.

It is about time our committees, Senatorial and Representative, have a meeting and determine time and place of holding conventions. There is no reason for delay. The Republicans are in the field, and organized. It is time we meet to select our standard bearers, and begin the campaign.

Every day the popularity of Col. Kilbourne is increasing. The various candidates named in opposition are only mentioned in compliment, and not in hopes of success. The nomination of Col. Kilbourne is a gain of two hundred votes to the Democratic ticket in Hocking county, and a gain sufficient to carry this legislative district.

The Primary Campaign.

It is very gratifying to the democrats to know that the present primary campaign is being conducted in a spirit of honorable rivalry, with no harsh words, and with no bad feeling. The candidates are all capable, honest, honorable men, and they are treating each other with the courtesy that becomes gentlemen. We hope to see a full vote, a fair count and the best to win.

Central Committee.

We do hope the Democracy at the coming primary will give attention to the selection of Central Committee men who will give some concern to the interests of the party.

A committeeman is supposed to interest himself in the success of his party; have, not a selfish, but a party interest in the campaign. At the late meeting of the committee several members asked that letters be written to them to inform them when the committee would meet, saying they didn't know when to meet, because they didn't take the papers.

They are fine specimens to have charge of a precinct or a township. The paper costs two cents a week, not more than the price of a stogy cigar, but they don't take the papers, but want a special messenger to come, come in a carriage and tell them when the committee meets.

It is this class of political dead beats who get to be committeemen. The man who does not take his county paper is certainly not deserving of a place in the councils of the party.

We hope good, intelligent, public spirited Democrats will be elected committeemen. The dead beats and boulders have had their day and the party has had the disaster and disgrace of defeat.

Put none but live men and honest, earnest democrats on duty.

The Junior members of the Knights of St. John will hold their festival, this Thursday afternoon and evening, weather permitting, on the grounds, between Court House and James Block.

Mr. Dan Finckel, one of Logan's oldest citizens, died in Columbus yesterday, funeral today, from M. E. church, under direction of the Masonic order.

THE HILLCAN DELEGATION TO THE ATHENS CONVENTION.

An Imposing Parade.

BIG SIX THE WHOLE PUSH.

Col. Alexander Sands Parades the Boulevards of Rem-pelsdorf.

The Republican Hocking county Delegation to the Athens Senatorial convention next Tuesday is an imposing body of statesmen, consisting of Col. Alexander Sands and his attachments.

The Big Boss will organize himself at the government post office, deploying on the Boulevard Rempel, and march on the soft mud carpeted "unter den Bielaesdorf" banner. The "Delegation" will command attention. The Colonel, his stomach swelled to Aldermanic proportions by the yet undigested Hillican he lately swallowed, will keep constantly on his feet, the arrows labeled, "Bank Receivership" shot into him by the late P. M. Vickers preventing him from taking a seat.

Reformer John White, like a marabout, an elephant keeper, will have a seat on his head, armed with a broom handle for a baton, and every time Sil Pursell, who is carried in the Delegation pocket bobs up like a jumping jack from a box waving a ticket "McLean," "affidavit," the Reformer will give him a swipe with the broom stick and reduce him to the pocket recesses.

Post Master McKay will be carried in the reverse pocket but because of his heavy weight will sag the Delegation a little out of the perpendicular, but this difference in weight of pocket is counter-balanced by the Journal-Gazette on the right shoulder with the Logan post office on the other, both of which concerns, the Colonel carries.

The Murray City News will be pinned to the coat tail of the Delegation. Post Master Noah Blosser of enterprise will be pulled along by a string to which he has tied a Ground Hog, intending this varmint to be made the National Party Beast, and take the place of the Eagle on the Senator Bright ticket. Post Master Ed Kelly, who is an expert with dinner tickets will act as a kind of side attachment and carry a sack of dried apples and a jug of water. When the Delegation needs refreshment he will issue a ration of snits and a drink of water. This will fill the stomach, be a saving of expense, and at the same time, by the water drink, give approval to the candidates position on the local option issue.

Ex-Post Master Vickers, Ex-Pension Examiner Campbell, and Ex-Internal Revenue Collector Woodworth will go down the day before and examine the ground to see if any of Gen. Grosvenor's tracks, his heel marks, still appear to the naked eye.

The Delegation is solid, it is unanimous, it is harmonious, it is for—

OBITUARY.

Wilford Stiers.

Wilford Stiers was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, May 31st, 1824; eldest son of Isaac and Lydia Reeves Stiers, and died at his home in Logan, Hocking county, Ohio, May 24th, 1901. His wife, nine children, two brothers and a numerous family relationship survive him.

His father with family emigrated from Guernsey county to Hocking county in the year 1837 and settled on a farm near the village of Logan, known as the Myers farm, one of the most fertile and beautiful broad acre farms in the Valley of the Hocking Hocking. It was here that Wilford Stiers spent the youthful years of his life and attained his majority.

In the year 1846, war was declared between the United States and Mexico, Texas, a free Republic had been previously annexed to the United States, she claiming as her south western boundary the Rio Grande river. This was disputed by Santa Anna, the then dictator of Mexico, who threw a military force in said disputed territory and was there met by a small U. S. Army of occupation under the command of General Zachariah Taylor.

Two sanguinary battles were fought north of the Rio Grande, and the enemy forced back across the river. Our flag had been insulted, and the invaders must be punished; the Standing Army being considered insufficient for the purpose, a call for Volunteers was made. Wilford Stiers, then at the age of 22, and having the blood of heroes coursing through his veins, (his grand-father having fought in the war of 1812), was one of the first to step forward and join the ranks of Company "D," Second Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, receiving the appointment of Sergeant in his company.

After having served his term of enlistment with honor and distinction, he returned to his duties on the home farm.

On the 19th of December, 1847, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Wolf, daughter of Christopher Wolf, a pioneer of the Hocking Valley and the owner of extensive lands, including where the Hamlet of Haydenville now stands. After his marriage he purchased and located on the old Wolf homestead, Starr township, Hocking county, Ohio, immediately south of Haydenville, where he engaged, in connection with agriculture proper, the breeding and improvement of fine stock. In the year 1861, the tocsin of war again sounded, this time in our own country, a rebellion, an endeavor to rend the unity of States.

Once more patriotism, the love of country forged to the front, and at the age of 37 years, Wilford Stiers, leaving his wife and family of small children, on the 19th day of November, 1861, enlisted as a private in Company "F" 58 Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He was appointed 1st Lieutenant of his company on the 8th day January, 1862 and promoted to Captain, March 27th, 1862.

After his retirement from the service of his country, the Captain returned to his farm, took up the industrial pursuits pertaining thereto; not with renewed vigor however, for he was aged and broken down, caused by exposure, and hardships incident to camp life.

About the year 1870 he was the prime mover in the institution of a Farmers Grange, the second in the State of Ohio; he was also a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Haydenville, O. In these fraternal relations, he was held in esteem, and was an earnest worker at all times. In 1887 he gave up active work on the farm, and moved to and occupied a residence in Logan, O., where he remained until death called him hence.

The deceased was a Christian, having joined the M. E. church in early life; a believer in the Gospel, with a willing hand for church help.

Wilford Stiers was perhaps as widely known throughout the State as any other man engaged in agricultural pursuits; owing to his willingness to accept and promote every thing good that presented itself in the line of advanced husbandry. He was a man of decided opinions, and had the courage to declare them, and at all times defend his convictions.

When a friend, a neighbor, a prominent citizen drops by the way side, we hesitate, we wonder, we exclaim the ways of Providence are past finding out; only when friend, neighbor, citizen has passed the divide, entered the great beyond, do we realize our loss.

Wilford Stiers has paid the last earthly debt; an old citizen has left us; his death is a public loss, an honest, capable, useful man is no longer with us; 'tis the bereavement and loss also, of a kind and affectionate husband, and father, and a great loss to kindred and friends.

The funeral was from the residence on Monday afternoon, Rev. Sayre, assisted by Rev. Williams conducting the religious exercises. The Odd Fellows of Logan and Haydenville attended in a body.

Samuel Stiveson is the only survivor who went to the Mexican war from Hocking county.
